Dear Mary Esther,
Thomas and Barbara:

As one after the other of our ancestors and near relatives of the older generations passed, I many times thought that I would, some time ere it be too late, gather together some information concerning the ~~lives~~ and the families of those from whom we have descended, and put it into form so that it could be preserved. But I have neglected doing this until now, when it is too late to get much reliable information extending far into the past.

Realizing however, that the information that I possess of my own knowledge would in time be as difficult for you to obtain as older material is now difficult for me to obtain, and believing that as years pass, you will more and more appreciate this little effort of mine, I have devoted myself to this task. I am affectionately,

Your dad,

David M. Hoover.

DAVID HUBER
and
ESTHER LEHMAN-HUBER

DAVID HUBER, (1781-1834).

No information is known to have come down concerning the nativity and antecedents of David Huber except the recollection of some that certain of his children at times made mention that their father came from Bucks County, Pennsylvania. He first appears in Franklin County of that state, where some time between the years 1804 and 1809 he married ESTHER LEHMAN (1787-1850) daughter of Daniel and Maria Lehman of Greene Township. They settled in that county and township and the only information we have concerning their life there is that they bought a "high priced" farm, could not pay for it, lost it and in 1826 moved to Mahoning County, Ohio.

There they bought and operated a farm about three miles north of the town of Columbiana, near what is known as the Midway Mennonite Church. They and many of their descendants are buried in the cemetery adjoining that church. The family was a Pennsylvania Dutch, Mennonite family. There seems to have been confusion wherever they lived between the names Huber and Hoover. Records in Pennsylvania would indicate that they used the two names almost indiscriminately. In Ohio they adhered more closely to the name Huber, but those of their children who moved to Indiana took the name Hoover. Pronounced in the language that they spoke the two names are almost indistinguishable, and whereas other families by the name of Hoover were living in their Pennsylvania and Indiana communities, they probably accepted the spelling of their name as it was known in those communities. Their children and grandchildren are:

1. MARY WISLER, (1809-1860), wife of REV. JACOB WISLER.

JOSEPH D. MYERS and ELIZABETH SHANK-MYERS

JOHN MYERS, (1760-1839)

and his wife MARY DILLON-MYERS (1767-1857), with their thirteen children, viz., Elizabeth (Mrs. Shank), Abraham, John, Samuel, Jacob, Maria (Mrs. Christian Shank), Peter, Joseph, Anna (Mrs. John Stauffer), Barbara (Mrs. Henry Shank), Christian, Henry and Fanny (Mrs. Jonas Shank) were a Pennsylvania Dutch Mennonite family, living in Washington County, Maryland, eight miles northeast of Hagerstown on the little Antietam. In 1832 the family went west and settled in Putnam County, Ohio.

MICHAEL SHANK, (1783-1865)

and his wife BARBARA WIEDMANN-SHANK (1790-1836), with their thirteen children (twelve daughters and a son, the youngest), viz., Catherine (Mrs. Moses Glimehaga), Barbara (Mrs. John Oyer), Anna (Mrs. Heizy), Fanny (Mrs. Snyder), Elizabeth (Mrs. Joseph D. Myers), Esther (Mrs. David Spital), Lydia (Mrs. Jacob Myers), Mary (Mrs. Solomon Myers), Sally (Mrs. Shafer), Susan (Mrs. David Hoover), Eva (Mrs. William Dicus), Christena (Mrs. David Whisler) and Michael, Jr., were a Mennonite family of German descent living at Markham in Upper Canada. At about the same time that the Myers family moved from Maryland to Putnam County, the Shank family also moved from Upper Canada to Putnam County. Two of the Myers' sons married two of the Shank daughters. Jacob Myers married Lydia Shank and

JOSEPH D. MYERS, (1802-1885)

married ELIZABETH SHANK (1816-1889). They owned and operated a farm on the south bank of the Blanchard River about seven miles westwardly from Ottawa, Ohio.

On this, Joseph D. Myers Farm is located a small family cemetery in which are buried the above mentioned John and Mary Dillon-Myers, Barbara Wiedmann-Shank, Joseph D. and Elizabeth Myers, Jacob and Lydia Myers and many of the descendants of these. In 1862, many years after the death of his wife Michael Shank, Sr., moved with his son Rev. Michael Shank, Jr., to St. Joseph County, Indiana, where he died in 1865. He is buried in an old cemetery one and one-half miles south and two miles west of Lakeville, Indiana.

The children and grandchildren of Joseph D. and Elizabeth Myers are:

1. MARY PROWANT, (1841-1912), wife of EPHRIAM PROWANT
 - (a) Noah Prowant
 - (b) Joseph Prowant
 - (c) Jacob Prowant

DANIEL MERCER,
SUSAN ROBERTS-MERCER
and
LUCY ALLER-MERCER

GEORGE MERCER,

a native of Scotland, a Quaker, married a Welsh woman whose name is not known, and migrated to America about the middle of the eighteenth century and settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. There is a tradition that he served in the Revolutionary War under a Captain Clark. His son

WILLIAM MERCER, (1775-1839)

in the year 1798 married CHARITY PETTIT, (1781-1855) daughter of Daniel Pettit, 1744-1831 and Martha Pettit, (1751-1827) all of Lancaster County. Prior to the year 1805 they moved to Columbiana County, Ohio, where they lived until 1834, when they moved to Wood County, Ohio. They had thirteen children, as follows: Martha, wife of Andrew Pettit, Mary Ann, wife of Enos Monehan, George, William, John Daniel, Beulah, wife of William Pike, Caleb, Charity, wife of Samuel Taylor, Lucretia, wife of Henry Groves, Abraham, Alice Ann and Charles. Some of these settled in the region around Columbiana County and did not accompany their parents to Wood County, Ohio.

WILLIAM MERCER, Jr., was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, August 13, 1805, and died in Wood County, Ohio in the year 1849. At about the age of twenty he married MARGARET IKIRT, a native of Pennsylvania. Some time after the year 1826 they left Columbiana County and lived for some time in Starke County, Ohio, and then in 1836 they followed his parents to Wood County and located in Portage Township where he farmed and at times taught school during the winter. He died at the age of forty-three and his wife died within two years of the time of his death. Of the fifteen children that had been born to them, twelve survived them, of whom Daniel was the oldest. They were:

DANIEL MERCER

was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, August 3, 1826. He came with his parents to Wood County in 1836 and on March 11th, 1847, married SUSAN ROBERTS, daughter of Joseph Roberts of Bloom Township. She died on August 22, 1865, leaving a family of eleven children, one of whom, Sardis, died in that same year. On January 2, 1867, he married LUCY A. ALLER, a widow with seven children, and later there were born to them their two youngest sons, Leonidas and Robert. Her oldest son, Nelson Aller, died in an early year of their marriage. The family then numbered nineteen children and stepchildren. It is said that both parents were equal to their task, that they were firm, considerate and impartial and that obedience and respect were accorded them. The family was thrifty, frugal and industrious. Oil was also found on land owned by him and he prospered and became affluent. He and his family were deeply religious and were devout members of the Church of Christ (Disciples) at Rudolph and some of them later at Bowling Green, Ohio. He was for more than thirty years an elder in the church, was liberal in his support of and donations to churches and to church schools. He gave generously to Bethany College and to Hiram College. A son and a number of his grandchildren attended Bethany College on scholarships provided by him. In advancements made to the children and in provision made by will for the division of his estate he treated both children and stepchildren alike. The six surviving stepchildren were: Elliott Aller, Maggie Mercer, wife of Porterfield Mercer, Zerelza Miller, wife of James Miller, Amos Aller, Rebecca Mercer, wife of J. Dowling Mercer, and Henry Aller.

William Mercer, Sr., and wife, Charity Pettit-Mercer, Daniel Mercer, and wife, Lucy Aller-Mercer, and many of the descendants of these are buried in the cemetery at Rudolph, Ohio. William Mercer, Jr., and wife, Margaret Ikirt-Mercer, and Susan Roberts-Mercer, are buried in an old neglected cemetery back off the road about one one and one-half miles northwestwardly from Rudolph, on what is known as the Fulton Mercer Farm. The children and grandchildren of Daniel Mercer are:

1. EMALINE WELTON, wife of SELDON WELTON

- (a) Lilly Cornell, wife of Jesse Cornell
- (b) Della Hires, wife of Lorenzo Hires
- (c) Emmet Welton

CHRISTIAN BAY

and

MARY JANE McCONNELL-BAY

CARL FREDERICK BEY (wife CATHERINE BEY)

was a resident of Wittenberg, Germany, was an officer in the Prussian army and served in the Napoleonic wars. He took part in Napoleon's advance onto Moscow and was one of the few survivors of the disastrous retreat from that city. His son came to America in 1852 and worked on a railroad at Elyria, Ohio, where he met and in 1854 married MARY JANE McCONNELL, (1835-1894), daughter of an Irish immigrant, Patrick McConnell and Jerusia Jane Reed-McConnell, farmers of Wayne County, Ohio. They lived in Wayne and Lorain counties until 1861 when they moved to Liberty Township, Wood County, Ohio, where he bought a farm and engaged in farming. He was thrifty, frugal and industrious, and oil was also found on his land and he became well-to-do. His wife died in 1894. He later married one ANNA HAGER of Hart, Michigan, with whom he lived for some time. They were later divorced. He and his first wife were members of the German Lutheran Church. They are buried in the cemetery at Rudolph, Ohio. Their children and grandchildren are:

CHRISTIAN BAY, (1825-1910)

DANIEL HOOVER
REBECCA SHANK-HOOVER
and
NANCY MYERS-HOOVER

was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, on September 14, 1821 and in 1826 moved with his parents to Mahoning County, Ohio. There in 1851 he married REBECCA SHANK, (born April 28, 1830), daughter of Michael Shank, (1799-1865), and Fannie Shank, (1798-1892), also of that county. In the spring of 1855 he moved to Elkhart County, Indiana, where he bought a farm in Harrison Township, adjoining the site of the Yellow Creek Mennonite Church, which farm he owned and occupied during the remainder of his life, and which remains in the family to the present time. On July 28, 1867 his wife Rebecca died. With the help of his sister Susanna, who made her home with him, and with hired help he maintained the home. On June 18, 1874 he married NANCY MYERS, (born September 21, 1845), daughter of Joseph D. Myers, (1802-1885), and Elizabeth Myers, (1816-1889), of Putnam County, Ohio.

He was a farmer and a blacksmith. He was a consistent member of the Mennonite Church and served as deacon in the Yellow Creek congregation for many years.

He died on February 9, 1884. His widow, Nancy, acquired the homestead and occupied it during the remainder of her life. She died on August 15, 1922, in the home of her oldest son, Dr. Joseph M. Huber, in the city of Chicago, whither she had gone just a few months before for treatment and care in her last illness.

He and both his wives and the following of his brothers and sisters, viz., Mary Wisler, Susanna Hoover, Samuel Hoover, Anna Christophel, Frances Hoover and David L. Hoover are buried in the cemeteries adjoining the Yellow Creek Mennonite Church. In these cemeteries are also buried all of his deceased children, except Joseph, viz., Jacob S. Hoover, Noah S. Hoover, Anna Christophel, Daniel S. Hoover, Frances Hoover and John M. Hoover. Dr. Joseph M. Huber is buried in Grace Lawn Cemetery in the City of Chicago.
